6. Delivered [redacted] reorganization of the National Security Council and the Senior Staff to DCI. He read it over hastily and stated that his initial intention was to designate me despite the material detraction from time available for running the DD/I Offices. He pointed out that en toto, this would not be more than the time his regular meetings require. He further felt that there was no need of my attending the IAC meetings and indicated that AD/CI

25X1A9A could deal directly with him on USCIB matters and represent the Agency in dealing with NSA. To the extent that DD/I problems still needed top level stimulus, this could be supplied by General Cabell who, as D/DCI, would concern himself more with intelligence than with operations. He approved  as alternate and assistant.
